

EDEN AMATEUR FISHING CLUB INC
44th ANNUAL “MINI” FISHING COMPETITION
11TH MARCH – 13TH MARCH 2022

TERMS & CONDITIONS

MARITIME, MARINE RESCUE & SAFETY

Reference: NSW Maritime <http://www.maritime.nsw.gov.au/>.

All boats must carry safety equipment as required by NSW Maritime. It is the responsibility of each competitor to acquaint themselves with these requirements.

All boat owners must log on and off with Eden Marine Rescue or by the Marine Rescue App. At all times you must act responsibly and be aware of your own and other competitors' safety. This includes not going to sea when weather conditions are considered unsatisfactory. If unsure contact Eden Marine Rescue for a weather update and if necessary, choose a safer fishing option.

As the competition will include open waters competitors will need to fully acquaint themselves with bar and sea conditions and make their own decisions as to whether to attempt bar crossings and proceed to sea.

FISHING RULES & REGULATIONS DPI NSW

Reference: <https://www.dpi.nsw.gov.au/fishing/recreational/fishing-rules-and-regs>

The NSW Recreational Saltwater Fishing Guide is produced by NSW DPI and funded from the Recreational Fishing Trusts as part of our commitment to providing recreational fishers with comprehensive, user-friendly information.

Fishing regulations and saltwater bag and size limits apply to help ensure healthy and sustainable fisheries for future generations.
